

Shoestring Teambuilding

How to improve your work environment with no budget, time or resources.

1. What is wrong with these people?!
2. Why can't we all just get along?
3. If only he/she would _____, this would be a better place to work.
4. Tuna for lunch? Every day? In the microwave? Really?

The only bad thing about going to work some days is that the office is just so peopley. However, in some places, that's the very best thing about going to work. The difference is largely dependent upon the prevailing culture of your workplace and your team. But what can you do?

The good news is there are things you can do, right now, to make it better at work.

The Shoestring Teambuilding seminar will give you practical, proven methods presented in an engaging format, punctuated with humour. And true stories. And humour.

This exciting opportunity is available one time only and led by none other than top-rated speaker and best-selling author – Tim D. Keck. Drawing on decades of personal experience and years of client work, Tim will show you how to grow your team even when you have no teambuilding budget, no time and no resources.

Tim D. Keck is a former Chief of Police and SWAT team leader. His clients include Oppenheimer Fund, PepsiCo and Walmart. He has been quoted in publications such as the New York Times and has appeared on national television.

Who should attend Shoestring Teambuilding? Anybody who wants to get on better with their coworkers, see their team succeed and further their career.

Note: You don't have to be a leader to attend. But you do have to care about your team.

Each delegate will receive a Shoestring Teambuilding workbook, complete with additional articles and links to further study. As a bonus, attendees will get reproducible assessments and forms they can use with their teams back at work.

You don't want to miss this one-time event with an expert in this field!

Biographical Sketch

Tim D. Keck is a best-selling author, a top-rated speaker and one of America's premier experts on leadership and teamwork under stress. He conceived the goBulletproof.com framework that is helping organizations worldwide create teams that consistently exceed expectations.

Formerly, Tim was a career police officer and SWAT leader who rose through the ranks to Chief of Police. He has testified before a Congressional committee, provided VIP protection to celebrities, and spearheaded a multi-national undercover investigation.

Tim is now the managing partner at Performance Insights, LLC, a boutique management consultancy based in NW Arkansas. He has been quoted in publications from Newsweek to The New York Times, made several appearances on national television and spoken at the Harvard Faculty Club.

His practical approach to leadership and teamwork comes from insights gained during SWAT missions, when a lack of performance might be deadly. Tim's presentations, however, are full of both wit and wisdom. He uses improvisational humour and true stories to illustrate learnings that can be put to use immediately.

In his previous career, Chief Keck's work was recognized by several federal agencies including the Drug Enforcement Agency and Department of Homeland Security. The Department of Justice wrote, "The FBI and the American people have been the beneficiaries of your professionalism and dedication to duty..." about his career-long efforts.

Tim has assisted organizations from L.A. to London and from Calgary to the Caymans. Clients include PepsiCo, Kimberly-Clark, Walmart Stores, Tyson Foods, Marriott, Arvest Bank Group, J.B. Hunt, OppenheimerFund, Total Oil – Canada and many more.

Testimonials:

"Tim Keck gets my highest recommendation. His unique ability to recognize, understand, and explain the way every team member thinks and operates blows my mind. He provides a priceless amount of value. I name Tim as one of the top contributors to the success that I enjoy as a business professional today."

- Eric Hinson, CEO/Founder, Explainify.com

"I look forward to each session with Tim, finding them to be equal parts entertaining, informative and inspiring. Whether working with us as individuals or as a group, all of the partners came away with new respect for one another and gleaned valuable insights on how to create a work environment that works for everyone."
